

Viral Hepatitis C

Patient Name _____

The patient has an acute illness with a) a discrete onset of symptoms and b) jaundice or elevated serum aminotransferase levels. (It has to meet both a and b to meet the case definition for Acute)

Yes _____ No _____ Unknown _____

The patient's serum alanine aminotransferase levels are greater than 7 times the upper limit of normal.

Yes _____ No _____ Unknown _____

The patient is IgM anti-HAV negative

Yes _____ No _____ Unknown _____

The patient is IgM anti-HBc negative or HbsAg negative

Yes _____ No _____ Unknown _____

The patient is antibody to hepatitis C virus (anti-HCV) positive, verified by an additional more specific assay.

Yes _____ No _____ Unknown _____

Please mark one of the following:

The patient has acute hepatitis C _____

The patient is a newly diagnosed case of chronic hepatitis C _____

Physician Name _____

Signature and Date _____